Why Choose A Career in LAW?

- Dynamic and Evolving: The legal field is ever-changing, offering constant challenges and opportunities for growth.
- Social Impact: As a legal professional, you have the power to influence change, fight injustice, and contribute to the betterment of society.
- Financial Rewards: Law graduates often enjoy competitive salaries and the potential for lucrative incomes through litigation and firm practice.
- Variety of Specializations: Law offers a diverse range of practice areas, allowing individuals to specialize in areas that align with their interests and passions. Whether it's criminal law, corporate law, environmental law, or human rights law, there's a specialization for nearly every interest.
- Prestige and Respect: Lawyers are often held in high regard in society due to their expertise and ability to navigate complex legal matters. This can lead to a sense of prestige and respect within the community.
- Global Opportunities: With the increasing globalization of legal services, there are ample opportunities to work on an international scale.
- Versatile Skill Set: Legal training equips individuals with valuable skills such as communication, negotiation, research, and writing, which are transferable across various industries and professions. These skills are highly sought after and can open doors to diverse career opportunities beyond the legal field.
- Entrepreneurial Opportunities: A legal background can open doors to entrepreneurial ventures, such as starting a law firm, consulting practice, or legal tech startup. Lawyers with entrepreneurial spirit can innovate within the legal industry and create new opportunities for themselves and others.

MOOT COURT

The School of Legal Studies boasts a state-of-the-art Moot Court Hall, designed to inspire student engagement in moot court activities. To oversee and facilitate these activities, our department has established a comprehensive Moot Court Committee, consisting of both student representatives and faculty coordinators. The committee actively organizes workshops and seminars aimed at enhancing the mooting skills of our students. Regular intra-department Moot Court competitions are conducted to provide hands-on practical experience, fostering a dynamic learning environment. Renowned Advocates visit our campus to impart valuable insights and training on mooting and pleading skills. Furthermore, our students have actively participated in various national moot court competitions, securing prizes and showcasing their prowess in this legal arena.

Court Visit

The School of Legal Studies orchestrates impactful court visits to various legal institutions, including Supreme Courts, High Courts, District Courts, and Specialized Tribunals such as the National Green Tribunal, Consumer Forums, Debt Recovery Tribunals, and National Company Law Tribunals. These excursions provide students with firsthand exposure to courtroom proceedings, legal practices, and a comprehensive understanding of the judicial system, enriching their educational experience and fostering practical insights into the legal profession.

Legal Aid Clinic, Awareness and Outreach Programme:

At our university, the School of Legal Studies operates a dedicated Legal Aid Clinic within the campus, offering invaluable assistance to the general public. Committed to social justice, our students, under the supervision of lawyers and faculty members, provide legal guidance and awareness, ensuring accessibility to legal services for the broader community in need. The School of Legal Studies at The Neotia University is dedicated to fulfilling its societal obligations by organizing numerous legal aid awareness and outreach programs in accordance with BCI guidelines. To oversee these Legal Aid Programs, an active Legal Aid Committee has been established, comprising both student representatives and faculty coordinators. Adhering to BCI guidelines, the committee follows standard operating procedures during the execution of Legal Aid Clinics and Legal Aid Awareness Programs. As part of our commitment to community and social service, the law department has conducted Legal Aid Awareness Programs in various semi-urban areas and villages within the South 24 Parganas district of West Bengal, India. These initiatives aim to raise awareness about legal rights and access to justice. Furthermore, our students actively participated in the National Lok Adalat, providing them with valuable insights into the nuances of the legal system.
